

ON-AIR CASTING CALL!

Have you dreamed of being a radio star? Now's your chance to break into a 50,000 watt station in a top market. Boston's hottest new talk station 1510 WMEX is casting a new host for an ongoing, recurring segment of your own.

Looking for outgoing, entertaining and radio-friendly voice to create your own branded segment. If chosen, you'll have the opportunity for live, in-studio segments on Renegade Radio, Shortsleeve Report, Michele McPhee Show and After Hours for a minimum of 3 months. If successful, you'll have the opportunity to fill-in for the station's permanent hosts and to create a show of your own. All your segments will be available to you to build a sizzle reel as well.

Listen to 1510WMEX on the dial at 1510 am, online at 1510WMEX.com or download the app for the content and themes that your segment would fit into. Follow 1510 WMEX on Facebook for updates on this opportunity.

Bring your resume, headshot and a brief description of your segment idea to the open casting call. You'll go in-studio for a taped, mock-segment with a producer, sound engineer and one or more of the regular 1510 WMEX on-air talent.

WHEN: Saturday, October 1st, 2016 / 10 am – 3 pm

WHERE: 308 Victory Road, Quincy MA – at Marina Bay
(free parking at end of street).

MORE: Visit www.1510WMEX.com OR www.BostonCasting.com for more information on the casting call

This is a non-union job!